Dear Mr. Null:

One of my clients is a Professional Corporation ("P.C.") with a valid NRC License and has a sole physician owner who is also an authorized user under this license. This physician intends to sell 100% of his shares to another physician who is also an authorized user, but under another NRC license. This new physician will then become the sole shareholder of the P.C. The P.C. will continue to operate as is and the seller physician will continue to be an authorized user under the P.C.'s license. Does this transaction require an amendment to the P.C.'s license?

Please inform me in writing at your earliest convenience. You may fax your response to me at (248) 338-0663. If there are any questions, please call me at (248) 338-0300.

Sincerely,

Farideh R. Bagne, Ph.D., J.D.
