Dave

You need to get back to Lisa on this (or Greg if she is not in).

I took a stab at a response to the three questions - it is in the E drive as ANSWERS DL QUESTION.WPD X
It is also on the middle of my desk along with a lot of background info that I tabbed in one package (Commission Paper; applicable inspection procedures; some prior inspections and management meetings).

Also, there is still the open question as to whether we even acknowledge to DL that the alleged has come to us. Do we need the alleged's OK beforehand? Caution Lisa.

In addition, before sending anything, check with RI stakeholders, including Randy and Hub (or Jim if he is not in). I just provided Glenn Meyer a copy of the draft response to the three questions.

In a related matter, we had some discussion this week with Hub about maybe sending a chilling effect letter - it is not a definite but a discussion of whether we should - if we decide to do that, we should discuss first at an ARB. I have drafted a chilling effect letter and it is also in the E drive as SALEM-CEL.WPD X Hub indicated that he had some comments but had not provided them to me.

I was suppose to be off all of New Year's week but may come in Monday and/or Tuesday since Joe is out all week and Rick decided that he also needed to take off Monday and Tuesday. However, if I do not come in and you have any questions, feel free to call me. There are a few enforcement issues which Joe turned over with Leanne.

thx

dan
