I.d NMC SECURITY PROCEDURE CITATION

NMC Security Procedure 4G Section 15.4.4.b.2.ii & 3 (NUMARC 89-01, Section 7.1 item II).

I.b PROCEDURE TEXT (paraphrase)

Individuals are denied access where background information is developed adversely reflecting on trustworthiness and reliability.

I.c CASE FACTS

- a. On December 6, 2001 you acknowledged to an NMC investigator that while working at Kewaunee you smelled alcohol on a worker and did not report the observation to either Kewaunee supervisor or security. When asked why you did not report the smell of alcohol, you stated the individual smelling of alcohol was a supervisor and therefore they (other supervisors) were aware of the individual's condition.

SECTION II APPLICANT RESPONSE

IN THE SPACE BELOW, PLEASE PROVIDE THE REASON(S) WHY YOU BELIEVE THE DENIAL OF YOUR NUCLEAR ACCESS AUTHORIZATION (AS STATED IN SECTION I) IS NOT WARRANTED:

The investigator had come to my house to ask me numerous questions regarding the possibility of welder flaws and poor workmanship by other not including me. I freely discussed this information because the NMC representative revealed he was investigating someone other than myself and because I wanted to help fix a problem if one existed. In addition the investigator repeatedly reassured me that all information gathered is confidential, at no time did the UMC representative reveal that any information which I revealed would be used against me.

The investigator ask if I know of a supervisors that smelled of alcohol and I said yes, myself and several other worked had reported this information to the supervisor [REDACTED] about [REDACTED] smelling of alcohol. 7(c)

I did not tell the investigator nor anyone else that I did not report his suspicion. But in fact I revealed that I told my supervisor [REDACTED]

I was employed as a welder I was not provided with training to determine if anyone including [REDACTED] was intoxicated on the job. Supervisors are given specialized training to determine if someone is intoxicated on the job.

I done everything I was instructed to do by the Fitness for Duty Requirement and I believe my access authorization should be restored.

I have been working nuclear plants for the past eighteen years and I been reliability and trustworthiness.
