Update regarding 9/28/06 sewer release event (Docket No. 03000001)

SUMMARY

The RSO provided the following information in follow-up of the event that was documented in a conversation record dated 10/2/06:

The RSC approved use of new holding tanks yesterday. The first new holding tank was received today and another is expected to arrive in mid-November. The licensee is finalizing the procedure for use of the new tank and the RSC is expected to approve the procedure today. The licensee plans a cold water pressure test of the new tank before it is used to store radioactive liquid waste on Monday.
