Dear Nuclear Regulatory Commission and Licensing Board Staffs:

I am writing regarding Docket # 52-007-ESP and ASLBP # 04-821-01-ESP. The Federal Register (Vol. 71, No. 194, pg 59136) lists an email of <JL5@nrc.gov> to which this request should also be sent, but my computer cannot send this to that address, an "invalid address."

I am hereby submitting my written request to give an oral statement at the Public Comment session regarding the ESP for a new power plant in Clinton, Illinois. The session is scheduled to be held Wednesday, November 8, 2006, 6:00 to 10:00 pm, at the Clinton Junior High School.

Please let me know that you have safely received this email, and that I will be scheduled to speak during the public comment session. Please let me know of any changes to the scheduling or location of this Public Comment session, and please send me directions to the location of the meeting.

If possible, please schedule me early in the evening on November 8th.

Please also let me know the deadline date for WRITTEN comments regarding the ESP, for persons who want to make comment but who cannot attend a meeting on November 8th. To what address, both postal mail and email, should these written comments be sent?

Thank you for your prompt response.
