Dear Mr. Tang:

I have talked with Tom Rich in regards to the confusion of assigned model nos. I hope that the following will clarify the model nos. and how they are used.

The following list indicates model nos. that drawings and test data were sent to the NRC for evaluation. The list includes model nos. 2000, 2040, 2088, 2090, 2091, 2092, 2170, 2171, 880-12-6, and SLX-60. The drawings for the above model nos. are in the attachments on the draft evaluation no. NR-579-D-101-G.

For marketing purposes, the following model nos. have been assigned to the above listed model nos. DXT, LTE-1, 101, LTE, LTE-U, XT, C3, L3 have been assigned to model no. SLX-60. Model 101 has also been assigned to model nos. 2170 and 2171.

If you have any further questions, please contact me.

Sincerely,

Larry Harmon
Plant Manager
