John-

Yes, I will provide those documents to the ACRS. The proprietary determination does not have to be repeated.

Donnie,

Related to providing information to ACRS, we have many documents we intend to send in, many of which have been sent before. In general, we will just provide documents again, so there is no trouble finding information. But in one case, we sent some drawings that were considered proprietary. Rather than retransmitting those, when the time comes, could I ask you to give a copy of that information to Tanny? Then, in our stack of documents (currently about 45 documents), we will simply refer to the AmerGen transmittal letter that forwarded those initially, rather than providing them again.

Please let me know. Thanks.

- John.
