Re: Report on Shipments of Americium-241 Contained in Petroleum Exploration Equipment
Covered by NRC General License for 2000 through 2004

Dear Ms. Doane,

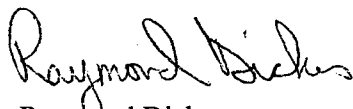

Schlumberger Technology Corporation "Schlumberger" relies on the NRC general license provided in 10 CFR 110.23 to export petroleum exploration devices (also known as "well logging" sources) containing americium-241 (Am-241). Schlumberger recently discovered that a November 22, 2000 amendment to NRC's export rules at 10 CFR 110.23 required reports of exports of Am-241 covered by this general license by February 1st for the previous calendar year. Schlumberger has not provided reports to the NRC on exports of Am-241 covered by this general license for calendar years 2000, 2001, 2002 and 2003.

The attached report describes Schlumberger's exports of Am-241 covered by this general in calendar years 2000 through 2004. By separate letter dated January 31, 2005, Schlumberger noted three exports to its affiliate in Libya not within the scope of the general license. For completeness, data on those shipments also are included in the attached letter.

Schlumberger is mindful of its responsibility to comply with NRC's rules governing the export of by-product material contained in petroleum exploration equipment. Schlumberger has taken steps to ensure future compliance with Am-241 export reporting requirements.

If you have any questions regarding this matter, please contact me.

Sincerely,

Raymond Dickes
Radiation Safety Officer
