Subject: apologies

Good Morning Ms. Ullrich,

I am sorry I have not been able to submit decommissioning additional information that you requested a couple months ago. We have two layers of Finance and Business people that are brand new to their jobs so I wanted to give them a chance to get settled before trying to explain to them why Penn State with its $2 billion dollar budget and an equivalent endowment needs to certify that it will spend < $20 M to clean up from radioactive material use sometime in the future.

I met the lower level person Tuesday, and we will be meeting for a discussion of the hows and whys in a week or two.

Thank you for your patience.
