MEMORANDUM AND ORDER
(Scheduling Initial Prehearing Conference)

Pursuant to the Licensing Board's June 13, 2007 memorandum and order, the Board has been advised by the participants that, after consulting among themselves, not all the participants are available for the proposed June 20 or 21, 2007 initial prehearing conference dates. Additionally, however, the participants have indicated they would be available on two days the week of July 9, 2007, the alternative time period suggested by the Board. After considering the dates proffered by the parties, the Board has decided to schedule the conference as follows:

Starting Date: Tuesday, July 10, 2007

Starting Time: 9:30 a.m. Eastern Time (ET)

The Board, which continues to anticipate that this conference should last no more than a half-day, will contact the participants regarding the call-in arrangements for this teleconference in the near future.

The argument times allocated for each participant for the argument on standing and the presentations on the admissibility of each of petitioner Eric Joseph Epstein's three technical contentions shall remain as specified in the Board's June 13 issuance. Also, as the Board indicated in that memorandum and order, in making their arguments, the participants should bear in mind that the Licensing Board members will have read their pleadings. As such, they should focus their presentations on the critical points in controversy as those issues have emerged as a result of the various participant filings.

It is so ORDERED.
