I thanked him for the information, told him that we were factoring his project into our licensing forecast, and informed him about the Commission request for a licensing forecast like what we have in place for the new reactors. I told him that we list the project as "unspecified applicant" if we post the information on the web before Areva announces.

The AREVA Supervisory Board formally approved the project Tuesday, and Withhold under

(b)(4)

Exemption 4

updated on progress, as real-time as possible. "Bon weekend" as my colleagues would say.
