Dear U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission,

As a teacher at Crownpoint Elementary School and a resident of the Crownpoint Community, I support ENDAUM in their effort to ban uranium mining from Crownpoint, New Mexico, Churchrock, New Mexico, other Navajo communities, and Mt. Taylor, a sacred site to the Dine people. I support ENDAUM in their efforts for the following reasons:

- <!--[if !supportLists]-->1. <!--[endif]-->Uranium mining in these Navajo communities can and has already caused much sickness, including cancer, and even death.
- <!--[if !supportLists]-->2. <!--[endif]-->Such uranium mining will pollute the water and air which children must drink and breathe for many generations to come.
- <!--[if !supportLists]-->3. <!--[endif]-->Uranium mining in Crownpoint and other Navajo communities or sacred Native American sites is opposed by an overwhelming majority of Navajos, teachers medical workers, and others living these communities.
- <!--[if !supportLists]-->4. <!--[endif]-->Uranium mining companies have still not cleaned up their previous mining sites.

Thank you,

David Wyatt, Teacher
