Tim and John,

As you may be aware, the collection of samples is going slower than originally thought. We did manage to complete the capture of the split samples from MW-54 early evening yesterday. Because of that delay I called John Frisone to cancel his expected visit for today (Friday 5/4) because we will not be in a position to sample another well today.

We will pick up again on Monday 5/7 and expect to complete the purge of MW-62. Tuesday we will then begin the collection of split samples from this well. Following this we will then move onto purge the next well on Wednesday, and sample on Thursday, etc. until all four wells are complete.

I regret any inconvenience this change in duration may cause.

Thanks,

Patrick Donahue
