I don't know him. He is an American Nuclear Society Fellow. He asked reasonable questions. Most are similar to what we were asking FENOC. The one that could be different is the independent review of the differences between the report and the reasons behind them.

Is he a notorious type a la some of our friends?

He seems to be a Root Cause consultant. Dr. Cocoran is a person who posted to a Yahoo Message group or their newsgroup. In fact, I have now found two web groups devoted to the Davis-Besse RPV head problem.

Just click on the "Join this Group" button and apply to join. I am sure they will let you in their group.

Dr. Cocoran himself, well try these links...
