Geoff,

I have gone through my e-mails (sent, received, trashed but not wiped from system) and all of the files on my C drive and our site shared drive to find any files that we presently have associated with the Exponent Report. I have printed all of those and put them in a FedEx (tracking no. 8408 0776 8784) envelope and requested overnight shipment.

I have, as I mentioned, also a CD with the full exponent report. You said you also had that so I am not sending that along in the package.

That is about it. Have a great week going through this stuff.

Jack
