Subject: FYI on the Exponent Report, NRC public Web site

Good morning,

FYI - Based on my test run this morning, stakeholders who will use ADAMS via the NRC public Web site and Web-based ADAMS to get the Exponent report may not get the same "properties" menu options that Eric described in his e-mail yesterday. To view all of the "chapters," I had to click on the yellow and white icon to the left of the pdf icon. At that point, the "chapters" were presented to me in reverse order (i.e. appendices at the top down through the intro).
