In order to complete the record, I am attaching my E-mail message to Mr. Martinelli of November 29, to which he responded with his November 30 E-mail message that is the subject of the Licensing Board's Censure Order of December 3, 2007, and his appeal thereof. I had transmitted my message only to Mr. Martinelli, with copies to Mr. Subin and Ms. Mizuno (co-counsel for the NRC Staff).

Mr. Martinelli:

I just received, from another party in the Indian Point license renewal proceeding, a copy of the E-mail message you sent to the Licensing Board's law clerk at 10:24 PM, last night. The E-mail begins, "Find it odd, . . ."

Your E-mail message includes my E-mail address, and the E-mail addresses for Mr. Subin and Ms. Mizuno of my office, as addressees. None of us, however, ever received this E-mail transmission from you.

Please advise me as soon as possible whether you did or did not send your message to us. Also, in light of the difficulties you and Ms. Shapiro seem to have encountered in making proper service of your correspondence and pleadings, and the Licensing Board's Orders in this regard, please be sure to include us (and all other parties) in all future E-mail transmissions and written communications you may make in the Indian Point license renewal proceeding.

I look forward to receiving your prompt reply -- as well as your reply to the E-mail message I sent to you yesterday.
Sherwin Turk
