3.0 DEFINITIONS

None

4.0 RESPONSIBILITY

- 4.1 The Category Evaluation Group Heads (CEG-H) shall have overall responsibility for the training of the evaluation personnel assigned to their group.
- 4.2 The individual evaluators shall be responsible for providing the cognizant CEG-H with feedback relative to their training and developmental needs.
- 4.3 The evaluation techniques overview instructor shall be responsible for providing basic Evaluation Techniques training and indoctrination and shall respond to training needs feedback by modifying the course as needed.

5.0 PROCEDURE

- 5.1 The following steps are required for the basic evaluation training and indoctrination:
- 5.1.1 As soon as possible after assignment to an evaluation group, the assigned evaluator shall complete the Evaluator's Profile form (Attachment A) or supply an updated resume.
 - 5.1.2 The assigned evaluator's CEG-H shall review the form or resume and determine the type and degree of training or indoctrination required.
 - 5.1.3 The newly assigned evaluator shall be scheduled for, attend, and successfully complete the Evaluation Techniques Basic Course prior to being assigned to or undertaking any evaluation duties. An examination shall be successfully passed with a score of 80 percent.
 - 5.1.4 The Evaluation Techniques Basic Course Instructor shall document (on Attachment B) that the evaluator has successfully completed the course.
 - 5.1.5 The ECTG Program Manager and CEG-Hs shall provide the cognizant training instructor with training needs and course revision information as necessary.
 - 5.1.6 In addition to the Evaluation Techniques Basic Course, each evaluator shall read all ECTG Program and Procedure documents and discuss each with their respective CEG-H prior to commencing evaluations. This process shall be documented on Attachment C. Attachment C shall also be completed within five working days after general revisions are issued to these documents.
 - 5.1.7 All completed training and indoctrination records shall be forwarded to the PC&A.
