Mr Dwaine Brown, RSO for Haliburton, NRC license number 42-01069-07, called the Operations Center to request abandonment of a well logging source. The tool is located in a well on the Alaska North Slope Alpine Field, Well ID CD-4301A, Registration #50-103-20557-01. Operated by Dayon drilling, owner Conaco Phillips (Alaska).

The well logging tool has a 19 curie Am-241/Be neutron source and a 2 curie Cesium-137 source. The tool is at approximately 15,233 feet bore depth / 6913 ft vertical depth. It became stuck on 12/23/07 and after retrieval efforts the licensee is requesting abandonment. The licensee has committed to pump 200 feet of high density concrete on top of the abandoned tool and drill string. The well will also be sidetracked.

Region 4 (Chuck Cain) and NMSS (Hackett) were convened on a conference all with the licensee and granted NRC permission to abandon the source. The licensee will followup with a 30 day written report.

Mr Brown can be reached at 281-224-7781(c) or 281-871-5745(o). R4DO(Pruett) also notified.

Since this is a HQ logbook entry, I'll assume they'll enter it into ADAMS--not us.
