I believe this is the notice that Rep Burnam's office was interested in knowing when it was published to the Federal Register. I will leave it to you whether you want to follow up with the representative's office to confirm that they have been added to the mailing list and the FRN was published.

Just FYI, and you may already know this, but the notice of opportunity to intervene was published in the Fed Reg today (72 FR 73381), so petitions to intervene are due Feb 25th. Our responses (assuming the petitions are filed on the last day) will be due Mar. 21st.
