Hi Celeste,

I'm sorry for the delay in sending you this schedule. Please note that it is only a draft as of today. The project manager will be sorting out the details with the applicant next week. When we work out logistics (such as space availability on the boat tour), we'll send out a final schedule. I would expect that to be available on or about January 22.

Hopefully this will help you with your planning needs. I look forward to meeting you. Please let me know if you have any questions.

Thanks,
Harriet
