Subject: RE: Calvert Cliffs ER: Contacting Indian Tribes

Tom,

As I recall there are no federally-recognized tribes headquartered in Maryland. There are, however, six federally-nonrecognized tribes in Maryland: Piscataway Conoy Confederacy and Subtribes (petitioned in 1978 for federal recognition), Piscataway Indian Nation, Pocomoke Indian Nation, Accohannock Indian Tribe, Nassue-Waiwash Tribe, and Youghiogheny Band of Shawnee.

In June 2007 during the NRC pre-application review, one of the NRC/PNNL reviewers suggested that we do some research to identify tribes to consult with for Section 106. The reviewer suggested that we look at other projects that did consultation to see which tribes they went with.

Following this discussion we reviewed and found that the Cove Point FERC project would be a relevant project and that they consulted with two tribes. We were taking steps to contact the Piscataway Conoy Confederacy and Subtribes (Maryland) and possibly the Seneca Nation of Indians (New York). I am not aware that this has taken place but will provide you an update when this occurs.

John,

Did Unistar contact any Indian tribes when the environmental report was prepared?
