General Comment:re: RIN 3150-AI26

The American Association of Physicists in Medicine (AAPM) appreciates the opportunity to comment on RIN 3150-AI26 draft rule language for proposed changes to 10 CFR 35.40 and 35.3045 related to medical events in brachytherapy. The first notification of the proposed changes was issued February 7, 2008 and revision 1 February 21, 2008. However, AAPM feels that five days to review proposed rule language, even at a preliminary stage, is unacceptable and an extension should be provided.

AAPM intends to file detailed comments in the next week regardless whether an extension is granted.

Van,

Attached for docketing is a comment letter on the above noted draft rule language that I received via the regulations.gov website on 2/26/08.

Carol
