Subject: Nuclear waste from Italy to U.S

To whom it may concern:

The United States is a master piece of nature. Having visited or lived in a variety of countries, the beauty, resources, and spaciousness of our country has no equal. Waste created in this country is challenging enough. Please do not accept nuclear waste for Italy--one of my favorite countries or any other country.

My teaching professional includes: teaching for thirty-five years--twenty-four of those years as a geography and history, a substitute teacher for six years in grades Pre-K to eighth, and a summer camp director for eight years. Beyond the textbook, I have encouraged students to take care of our country and planet. My students often heard, "If everyone cleans up their own mess, there will be no mess." Another cliché: "Do we want to live in trash?" "This planet is not your waste basket."

Please think about what is being done to our country. Our country should be the leader in keeping a healthy environment for the ages by being an example. No amount of money is worth bringing nuclear waste from other countries to our beloved United States of America.
