Marjorie:

I have received comments back on the D Plan and I am making some minor revisions now. I currently have the waste volumes based on what was on-site at the beginning of 2006. However, in a couple of weeks, all of the stockpiled material will be gone. Do you have an opinion on what I should report as the waste volumes in the D Plan. This, of course, is a problem with writing a D Plan while work is in progress.

We can talk about the schedule with Pat on Tuesday. They have not shipped much this week due to all the rain.
