Summary:
15:00 Mr. Brown called me to provide me the requested information. Three gauges had been transferred to the above licensees but none had been returned and no servicing had been performed on the three gauges by Troxler. J&L Engineering received a Troxler 3411 SN 18180 on March 9, 1991. J&L Testing received a Troxler 3430 SN 20031 on August 16, 1991 and a Troxler 3411 SN 17759 on November 17, 1989.

15:25 I spoke with Mr. Alvi about the above information. He checked his most recent leak test records which showed that the two gauges distributed to J&L Testing were still in their possession. He would contact me tomorrow regarding his search of older leak test records to determine if Jeff Zell Consultants ever possessed the third gauge.
