Subject: Nuclear waste desposal

Congress needs to deals first with our mounting nuclear waste disposal problem before considering importing any radioactive waste from anywhere else. In the future, if Congress does their work right now, there could be a profitable business of importing and treating / recycling radioactive nuclear waste. However, knowing Congress' track record, if Italy or any other country wants to contribute to the Congressional re-election fund(s), the constitutents back home will be quickly forgotten. We will soon be afloat in other coutries waste. It would be a reverse NAFTA, but this time all the waste would be coming in as quickly as the good jobs left the country. Old Ross Perro was right!
