Subject: Re: See How This Reads to You - I'll Revise Monday as Requested

I think the reason is to make management feel like we are doing something! It would be nice to focus on deciding where we go from here. I see lots of options, but not many decisions on which ones to take. Hopefully, with Sam and Marc's help, we get a going forward position on Monday.

Thanks again!

I thought so, but wasn't sure. I forget her exact reason for wanting the Note on Monday.

We debriefed on Friday. I don't believe we plan to debrief again?

Thanks - rest looks good.

Hopefully this covers the activities for the AIT accurately.

I would not discuss preliminary findings in this Note.
