Guy,
I received both your calls and I think we're all set up for tomorrow afternoon's call.

Thanks, Paul.

"Transmission tour" is currently planned for first thing Tuesday morning. With the 3 stops planned (2 around the Trace; one at Baker's Creek), we estimated that to take around 3 hrs. There is one additional ROW crossing that we are considering, if there is meaningful access. That has not yet been determined.

Guy,
Met with Mike. Looks like Jim Becker will need to see some additional items following the Transmission Tour. I'm working on what these items are and will transmit them to you as soon as I hear.

Question: Are you planning the Transmission Tour on Tuesday morning?
