Thanks, Tami.

A few quick items:

1. What does the yellow highlight mean?
2. Looks like the dates on the schedule for Thursday, Friday should be 6/19,20 respectively.

Have a good and safe holiday weekend!

Guy

Subject: Updates to GG audit schedule to include transmission tour and recent additions of staff

Amy:

Based on the conversations yesterday on the transmission tour and on new additions we have to the audit attendee list, I have made a few updates to the draft audit schedule. I have heard from Dan Mussatti and he says that anytime Wednesday is ok with the Need for Power reviewers to talk to the Entergy, Inc people in New Orleans. The new additions should be highlighted in yellow and I think will only be from Monday to Wednesday.

Let me know if you see any details I have neglected to include or anything you see that might need revisiting. I will talk to you on Tuesday.

Thanks.
Tami
