Guy:

I have sent a reminder to those gentlemen to let me know on Monday their plans. I had received an email from Chris when we first announced that the documents would be available and he stated he would try for June 11 or 12. However, judging from how long he has been gone and all the activity happening in our division these days, I am not certain he will be able to accomplish his original goal. I am hoping Dan and Andy are able to keep to their plans.

I hope to have their responses by our Monday phone call.

Tami

Tami,
At this point, just to confirm, I understand that we can expect Dan Musatti on Tuesday.

I assume you'll be advising me if and when Andy Kugler and Chris Cook will be visiting.

Thank you,
Guy
