It takes a few days before things become available in ADAMS for our viewing. Did you receive a ML number when it was submitted?

Terri is still working on editing the delineation/binning of the scoping comments based on my changes. She said they have been having server problems since Friday and that is slowing down the database a lot. I was hoping to have that report to you by now, but will send it as soon as she is able to finish.

Hi Nona,

The e-mail for Cameron Payne was put into Adams yesterday. Wondering if you were able to pull up the ML number.
