Dear License Reviewer:

Please amend our byproduct material license to name Ting Li, M.D. as the radiation safety officer. Dr. Li is currently listed as an authorized user on our byproduct material license. In addition, over the past year, he has worked under the supervision of Marshall Katz, M.D., as an assistant radiation safety officer. A letter attesting to his training is attached for review.

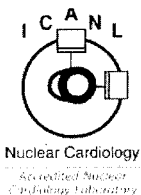

In addition, please amend our byproduct material license to delete Marshall Katz, M.D. as an authorized user and the radiation safety officer.

If you have additional questions, please contact Michael W. Lairmore, Nuclear Physicist at (201) 693-2277, or myself at (860) 886-2679, ext. 11.

We thank you in advance for your assistance with this licensing action.

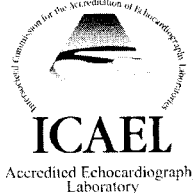

Sincerely,

Fred L. West

Memo from Marshall Katz, MD, F.A.C.C, Safety Radiation Officer

Subject: Authorization of co-radiation safety officer status for Dr. Ting Li, MD, PhD, F.A.C.C

Dr. Ting Li has been under my tutelage for approximately 12½ months and has learned the duties and responsibilities of a radiation safety officer. He has met requirements to become a radiation safety officer and will take on the co-role as the radiation safety officer for Cardiology Associates of Norwich, LLC.
