Response to Request for Additional Information Concerning License Amendment Request Revising Methodology Report DPC-NE-1005-P-A, Revision 0, Nuclear Design Methodology Using CASMO-4/SIMULATE-3 MOX (Proprietary)

The affidavit stated that the submitted information should be considered exempt from mandatory public disclosure for the following reasons:

- (i) The information sought to be withheld from public disclosure is owned by Duke and has been held in confidence by Duke and its consultants.

- (iii) The information was transmitted to the NRC in confidence and under the provisions of 10 CFR 2.390, it is to be received in confidence by the NRC.
- (iv) The information sought to be protected is not available in public to the best of our knowledge and belief.

- (v) The proprietary information sought to be withheld in the submittal is that which is marked in the proprietary version of the response to the Request for Additional Information from the Nuclear Regulatory Commission dated February 11, 2008 concerning Revision 1 to the Duke methodology report DPC-NE-1005-P, Nuclear Design Methodology Using CASMO-4/SIMULATE-3 MOX. We have reviewed your application and the material in accordance with the requirements of 10 CFR 2.390 and, on the basis of your statements, have determined that the submitted information sought to be withheld contains proprietary commercial information and should be withheld from public disclosure.

Therefore, the version(s) of the submitted information marked as proprietary will be withheld from public disclosure pursuant to 10 CFR 2.390(b)(5) and Section 103(b) of the Atomic Energy Act of 1954, as amended.

Withholding from public inspection shall not affect the right, if any, of persons properly and directly concerned to inspect the documents. If the need arises, we may send copies of this information to our consultants working in this area. We will, of course, ensure that the consultants have signed the appropriate agreements for handling proprietary information.

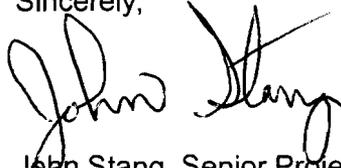

If the basis for withholding this information from public inspection should change in the future such that the information could then be made available for public inspection, you should promptly notify the NRC. You also should understand that the NRC may have cause to review this determination in the future, for example, if the scope of a Freedom of Information Act request includes your information. In all review situations, if the NRC makes a determination adverse to the above, you will be notified in advance of any public disclosure.
