

Draft date: 10/08/08
8 am

SCHEDULING NOTE

Title: BRIEFING ON URANIUM RECOVERY (Public Meeting)

Scheduled: Thursday, December 11, 2008
9:30 am, Part 1
1:30 pm, Part 2

Duration: Approx. 2 hours morning session; 2.5 hours afternoon session

Location: Commissioners' Conference Room, 1st fl OWFN

Participants: Presentation

PART 1, Morning Session, NRC and BLM Staff

50 mins.*

Bill Borchardt, Executive Director for Operations

Martin Virgilio, DEDMRT

Charles Miller, Director, FSME

Larry Camper, Dir., Div. of Waste Management and Environmental Protection, FSME

Topics:

- Status of Uranium Recovery Applications
- Status of In-Situ Leach (ISL) Uranium Recovery GEIS
- Status of Cooperative Rulemaking with EPA on ISL facilities

Mitchell Leverette, Chief, Solid Minerals Division, Bureau of Land Management,

U.S. Department of Interior

10 mins.*

Topic:

- Oversight with respect to Federal lands including development of MOU or MOA between Bureau and NRC regarding Bureau use of NRC's Environmental Assessments.

Commission Q & A

60 mins.

PART 2, Afternoon Session

Panel 1 – Tribes and State Representatives

50 mins.*

Tribal Representatives (TBD)

State Government representatives

Wyoming Department of Environmental Quality (a cooperating agency for GEIS)
Don McKenzie, Administrator, Land Quality Division (confirmed)

New Mexico Environment Department
Jon Goldstein, Deputy Cabinet Secretary (invited)

Commission Q & A 30 mins.

Panel 2 – Other Stakeholders 40 mins*

Navajo Allottees (NM) (TBD)

National Mining Association
Katie Sweeney, Deputy General Counsel, NMA (confirmed)

International Forum on Sustainable Options for Uranium Production (IFSOU)
Michelle Rehmann, Technical Program Coordinator, WM Symposia(USA)
(confirmed)

Natural Resources Defense Council (TBD)

Topics:

- Views on Process and Regulation of Uranium Recovery

Commission Q & A 30 mins.

*For presentation only and does not include time for Commission Q & A's

Documents:

Staff Background due to SECY: November 26, 2008
Slides due to SECY: December 4, 2008