Now America's #1 Bank

JPMorgan Chase is proud to announce that Washington Mutual branches became part of JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., on September 25, 2008. Our combined company is America's #1 bank in deposits. For you, it will mean even more convenience: over 5,400 branches and 14,300 ATMs from coast to coast.

For Now, Bank as Usual

-- Simply continue to use your accounts, products, and Chase branches as you do today. Until we combine systems, WaMu branches will not be able to offer banking services for JPMorgan Chase accounts. We will let you know as additional services and locations become available to you as we combine our two banks.

-- There is no need to change any routing and transit numbers. Your U.S. dollar wire transfers and ACH transactions will not be affected. Please do not make any changes to your instructions.

-- We will honor your previously stated privacy preferences in the sharing of information throughout our combined companies - which now includes the companies affiliated with both WaMu and JPMorgan Chase.

-- While it is always our intent to process your checks and other items as quickly as possible, we want you to be aware that in most cases, we will treat Washington Mutual checks as if they are from a separate bank for purposes of funds availability and cashing checks until we merge our systems. Until that time, if checks that you write are presented for payment to a Washington Mutual branch, the check may be treated as though it was written on another bank.
