Les:

It is a big size conference room I guess, it can handle your perfunctory "Seismic Group". Incidentally, I totally forgot that I was going to be out-of-town on Friday (it don't strike me that I had to attend a wedding on Friday, when I put out the meeting notice), Sheryl Burrows will back me up on that day.

So send your slides etc. to Sheryl, as before.

Sorry.

Ram

Hi Ram,

Are we in a pretty big conference room on Friday? I am having more people than I expected express an interest in attending the seismic meeting (don't they have something better to do so close to the weekend?). Just wanted to make sure we are not in one of the tiny conference rooms. Thanks.

Leslie
