JOINT INTERVENORS REPORT ON PROPOSED SCHEDULE

We thought we should add our own comments to the NRC Staff's and Applicants' filings on schedule for this proceeding.

As their briefs indicate, NRC staff and Applicants were unable to reach agreement on a proposed schedule. Both of their briefs note that Joint Intervenors are not opposed to the schedules they propose.

Joint Intervenors' only intent and hope in this proceeding to receive a full and fair hearing on the issues we have raised (obviously, we believe if we obtain that hearing, our positions may prevail). Our intention is not to unduly delay matters, nor to use legal procedural maneuvering to unnecessarily extend or obstruct this proceeding.

On the April 8 conference call, Joint Intervenors indicated our preference for the schedule proposed by NRC staff. However, we also stated we are willing to be reasonable and as accommodating as possible. Thus, while we prefer the NRC staff's proposed schedule, we do not oppose the Applicants' proposed schedule.

Joint Intervenors are prepared to adhere to whatever schedule the ASLB determines is appropriate.

Respectfully submitted,

April 15, 2009,
