Documents Title in ADAMS)

Mr. Manni, your letter dated April 21, 2009 states that there is no change to the license. However, in your letter dated February 27, 2009, you stated that AHLVC has been acquired by another company. Who has control of the license? He said that it is complex as AHLVC still exists and is selling part of the business to South Jersey Heart Group. However, there is a clause of 6 months in which South Jersey Heart Group can change their mind. AHLVC still exists and is maintaining control of the license at this time.

Dear Mr. McKinley:

The Medical Practice of Advanced Heart Lung and Vascular Care (AHLVC) at the aforementioned address has been acquired by the South Jersey Heart Group (SJHG). It is the intention of AHLVC to amend our license and request by way of this letter that our license for this facility only be closed. It is the intention of SJHG to apply for a new license / amend their existing license for the same address, thereby permitting as smooth a transition as possible. Both are requested for as soon as possible.

Once approval is given AHLVC will perform a final daily survey and daily wipe test, and will provide a complete inventory of all materials being transferred to SJHG. Please let me know if you require this information any sooner as a preliminary to final disposition.

If there are any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me at 609-893-1200, extension 5307.

Thank you for your attention to this matter!

Sincerely,

Joseph R. Manni
