Certificate of Service

I hereby certify that copies of WHAT ARE CUMULATIVE IMPACTS? And POTENTIAL FOR RENEWABLE ENERGY AND ENERGY EFFICIENCY TO MEET FLORIDA'S GROWING ENERGY DEMANDS were provided to the Electronic Information Exchange for service to those individuals on the service list in this proceeding on this 28th day of April, 2009. These documents were previously filed in the EIE system and all parties previously received these documents. This certificate accompanies copies that are in a different electronic configuration. It was this Petitioner's understanding that all of these electronic issues had been previously resolved in a timely manner. This filing is made with an abundance of confusion...and we hope caution. Apologies for the lack of formatting below; advanced software was not available.
