Hi AnnMarie

I believe you hit the nail on the head. although I wouldn't have said for "political" reasons, I'd say it's to communicate with important external [and internal] stakeholders.

give a call if you want more details. I'm in all day.

essentially - hard to say if OC was NOT in hearing, would it still be necessary due to the State of NJ and its way of doing business.

I am on vacation this week and I have been monitoring emails - it looks like we are going through hell this week with comms and opinions on whatever.
