Action Required; What type of use was the T2 building? It had an office with workspace and was mainly used for calibration. Was the material confined to a certain area of the building? No, it could have been used throughout the facility. Also the safe was removed after the final status survey was completed. What is the basis that the area was not contaminated? We kept the safe closed and then shipped it. Additional question asked on 6/10/2009: Was the Uranium obtained under the 10 CFR 40.22(a) general license provision? It was not on a specific license so I believe it would be obtained under 10 CFR 40.22(a).
