Here is the latest information from Wal-Mart. I have not looked closely at the revised TES numbers but will do so on Monday.

Willie

Per your request, attached are our final reconciliation of numbers for the reports leading up to the 1/29/09 final, our assessment of the level of management in attendance at the April 2004 meeting with Isolite, and our actions to gain access to stores that were indicated to have TES but which we no longer own or occupy. Please let me know if you have any additional questions.
