Re: Temporary RSO for license #06-06697-02 & #06-06697-03

Dear Penny,

This letter is to inform you that I am on maternity leave as of June 1st 2009 for 60 days. It is clear that notification to the NRC must take place within 30 days of this temporary position. The temporary position can be used for a maximum of 60 days per year (10 CFR 35.24).

Since the hospital has two separate licensees, we will have two different temporary RSO's. Our previous radiation safety officer, Dr Harvey Hecht, will take on the duties of temporary Radiation Safety Officer (RSO) for Stamford Hospital license #06-06697-02. The current RSO of Hartford Hospital, Peter Mas will take on the duties for our other license #06-06697-03 during my maternity leave.

As previous RSO on license #06-06697-02, as well as current AU, Harvey Hecht fully meets the training necessary as designated by the NRC. As current RSO for Hartford Hospital and continuing consultant to Stamford Hospital, Peter Mas has the experience to deal with all aspects of license #06-06697-03.

Sincerely,

Sarah Bull, Chief Physicist, DABR
