

U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission to Conduct Public Meetings on its Environmental Review of a Proposed Uranium Enrichment Facility

The U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission is hosting public meetings in the afternoon and evening on Tuesday, May 19 at the Warwick Center at the University of North Carolina at Wilmington in Wilmington, North Carolina. Each meeting will cover the same information. The purpose of the meetings is for the NRC staff to receive public comments on topics it should address in its environmental review of a uranium enrichment facility that General Electric-Hitachi has proposed to build north of Wilmington. Interested members of the public are encouraged to attend and provide comments.

The NRC will host an open house for one hour prior to each meeting. The first open house begins at noon and the meeting starts at 1 p.m. The second open house begins at 6 p.m. and the meeting starts at 7 p.m.

For more information, call Antoinette Walker-Smith at 1-800-368-5642, Extension 6390, or visit www.nrc.gov and click on "Public Meetings and Involvement."
