Please change "myself" to "me" in the second and third sentences of the first paragraph. In those instances, "myself" is not grammatically correct. Email should be written in all lower case. And in the first sentence, I'd change "discussed" to "contain"

cc's your independent thoughts - high level would be appreciated.

I embellished in bold below.

In order to address the email of 5/20 I really do believe we need to attach the response. All the other emails I believe we have addressed the issues. this email will be awfully long if we input the answers - unless you can work magic and tell him nothing, being brief will be difficult.

See attached on his point by point of 5/20.
