Re: Lockheed Martin Corp. – Financial Assurance
PA DEP License No. PA-1099
(Formerly NRC License No. 37-02006-09) 0301394

Dear Mr. Dwyer:

Lockheed Martin recently submitted to the Pennsylvania Department of Environmental Protection (Department) amendments to its original standby letter of credit (No. [redacted]) from Wachovia Bank. However, the original standby letter of credit is currently on file with the NRC. The original standby letter of credit is an integral part of Lockheed Martin's financial assurance, and it should be joined with the amendments currently in the Department's possession.

In order for Lockheed Martin to complete its submission of financial assurance to the Department, the NRC must forward the original standby letter of credit to the Department so that it can be joined with the amendments in our possession. The original standby letter of credit should be sent to my attention at the address above. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely yours,

Andrew T. Bockis
Assistant Counsel
