Dear Sir:

On September 3, 2009, the U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission issued invoice number RR0036-09 in the amount of $168.34. Your debt is associated with the Freedom of Information Act Request received from William Blair, by correspondence dated April 16, 2009. To date, our records show that you have not paid this invoice. Since payment has not been received during the 30-day interest waiver period, your current balance is $193.06.

It is our intention to refer your account to the Department of the Treasury for collection if payment is not received within 30 days from the date of this letter. The Department of the Treasury will proceed with various collection actions such as tax refund offset, offset against any monies owed to you by the Federal government, wage garnishment, and referral to private collection agencies. As the debtor, you will be responsible for all fees incurred for the collection of this debt. The collection fees are 28 percent, except for those offsets collected through the Treasury Offset Program (TOP). The current TOP fees range from $15.00 to $25.00 per offset.

Sincerely,

/RA/

Renu Suri, Acting Team Chief
License Fee Team
Division of the Controller
Office of the Chief Financial Officer
