Dear Mr. Bogart:

This is in response to your letter of October 4, 1966, requesting my personal review of the Initial Decision of the Atomic Safety and Licensing Board on the construction permit application of Consolidated Edison Company for Indian Point Station Unit No. 2.

Thank you for your letter. I can assure you that, in accordance with Commission practice, the Board's Initial Decision will be personally reviewed by all members of the Commission.

Sincerely yours,
