Dear Mr. Besing:

It has come to our attention that Amendment No. 08, issued on December 8, 2008, contained an error, in that your authorization for Molybdenum-99 accidentally "dropped off" the license. It appears to me that this probably occurred when the document underwent "conversion" from one word processing format to another, aside from my review and preparation of the amendment.

Enclosed is a corrected copy of Amendment No. 10 to your NRC Material License No. 24-32462-01MD, which restores your authorization for Molybdenum-99 in Subitem No. 8.A. We apologize for this error and for any inconvenience this error may have caused you.

Please review the enclosed document carefully and be sure that you understand all conditions. If there are any errors or questions, please notify the U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission, Region III office at (630) 829-9887 so that we can provide appropriate corrections and answers. If you have any questions concerning this amendment please contact me at either (630) 829-9841 or (800) 522-3025, ext. 9841.

NRC's Regulatory Issue Summary (RIS) 2005-31 provides criteria to identify security-related sensitive information and guidance for handling and marking of such documents. This ensures that potentially sensitive information is not made publicly available through ADAMS, the NRC's electronic document system.

Pursuant to NRC's RIS 2005-31 and in accordance with 10 CFR 2.390, the enclosed license document is exempt from public disclosure because its disclosure to unauthorized individuals could present a security vulnerability.

The RIS may be located on the NRC Web site at: <http://www.nrc.gov/reading-rm/doc-collections/gen-comm/reg-issues/2005/ri200531.pdf> and the link for frequently asked questions regarding protection of security related sensitive information may be located at: <http://www.nrc.gov/reading-rm/sensitive-info/faq.html>.

A copy of this letter will be available electronically for public inspection in the NRC Public Document Room or from the Publicly Available Records (PARS) component of NRC's document system (ADAMS).
